BEING JUDGEMENTAL

When I see the downfall of others and I want to criticise
Do I have the right to judgment, do I think that is wise?
Do I know their circumstances that brought them down this low?
Can I qualify my reasoning when there's things that I don't know?

Maybe God allows this testing to perfect their lives as gold.
So their hearts may be made perfect to represent His fold.
In His ways there is a purpose; in the valley they might grow;
When there's no one else to turn to His deepest love will show.

So beware and do not follow the ways that set your rule;
If you have not ever travelled down this road or in this school.
Lessons in the days of learning come in many different ways;
In the end God will be honoured; in the end receive our praise.

Oh, be careful how you judge them for you are not in control;
While there's testing in the valley there's redemption for their soul.

During this time let us choose love even when we cannot physically wrap our arms around each other. Let us find ways to be the loving embrace of God to our neighbours
