Pecans in the Cemetery

On the outskirts of a small town, there was a big, old pecan tree just inside the cemetery fence. One day, two boys filled up a bucketful of nuts and sat down by the tree, out of sight, and began dividing the nuts. 'One for you, one for me, one for you, one for me,' said one boy. Several dropped and rolled down toward the fence.

Another boy came riding along the road on his bicycle. As he passed, he thought he heard voices from inside the cemetery. He slowed down to investigate. Sure enough, he heard, 'One for you, one for me, one for you, One for me...'

He just knew what it was. He jumped back on his bike and rode off. Just around the bend he met an old man with a cane, hobbling along.

'Come here quick,' said the boy, 'you won't believe what I heard! Satan and the Lord are down at the cemetery dividing up the souls!'

The man said, 'Beat it kid, can't you see it's hard for me to walk.' When the boy insisted though, the man hobbled slowly to the cemetery.

Standing by the fence they heard, 'One for you, one for me. One for you, One for me.'

The old man whispered, 'Boy, you've been tellin' me the truth. Let's see if we can see the Lord.

Shaking with fear, they peered through the fence, yet were still unable to see anything. The old man and the boy gripped the wrought iron bars of the fence tighter and tighter as they tried to get a glimpse of the Lord.

At last they heard, 'One for you, one for me. That's all.. Now let's go get those nuts by the fence and we'll be done....'

They say the old man had the lead for a good half-mile before the kid on the bike passed him.

Praise Items:

Kelsey and Lucas Seeberger are excited to announce that Layna will have a little brother or sister this September! Please pray for the Seeberger family as they prepare.

This past Tuesday, March 23, Pastor Jack Correll began his latest chemotherapy regimen. Usually, by day 2 or 3, he experiences nausea, sleeplessness, loss of all appetite, and the inability to keep any liquids down. These days are always coupled with deep fatigue, and all of these symptoms get more severe, as the next several days unfold. PRAISE THE LORD that, because of your prayers, Jack is in Day 7, and he has had no nausea, has been able to eat and drink way more than usual, AND the only side effect he is experiencing so far, is some tiredness after he jogs his daily route of 50 kms. 😊(that last part is a joke from John Howarth)

Prayer Requests:

There is a prayer box at the back of the chapel. Prayer cards are located in the chairs.

Pray for our nation and the world as we all go through this pandemic.
